

Cambridge January 18th 1889.

To the Committee on Roads and Bridges
City of Cambridge

Gentlemen:

We the undersigned engaged in business on Bridge Street East Cambridge would respectfully call your attention to the present filthy condition of the street from the junction of Cambridge Street to Craigie's Bridge, and would petition that the same may receive your early attention, that we may be relieved at once of the accumulation of mud and dirt which has become a serious inconvenience to us.
