Dear Friends:

Now that I am home from the happy tumult and the holy shouting of the ceremonies in Rome, and before I leave home here in Pittsburgh to take up my duties at the Holy See, I send you this brief word of gratitude for your affectionate remembrance which came during these busy days.

I beg constant remembrance in your prayers and pledge mine that all the lively faith and joyful love revealed in these recent exciting days may grow even more strong in the months and years to come--to the consolation of us all and the strengthening of God's Holy Church!

With grateful blessings, I am

Faithfully in Christ,

+ John Cardinal Healy
