

City of Cambridge

Councillor Danehy

8.

In City Council,
September 27, 1971.

WHEREAS:-

On the 18th day of August 1971 death brought to a close the active life of Maurice Jacobson at the age of forty-five, and

WHEREAS:-

Maurice Jacobson, known to the North Cambridge Community as "Moe the Druggist", in his operation of the Rindge Pharmacy was more than a druggist and friend to the community, serving as psychologist and advisor to the many people who came to him with their problems, and

WHEREAS:-

His charity was extensive without ostentation and in times of crisis he cheerfully responded to the need at great personal sacrifice, working long hours in his chosen field, to make the life of his fellowman a little brighter and happier, therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That the Mayor and City Council of the City of Cambridge does by this resolution record the profound influence of Maurice Jacobson on the civic life of the City of Cambridge and recognizing that his death was a distinct loss to the city in which he worked and won deep respect and affection, and be it further

RESOLVED:-

That this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this City Council and a copy thereof be sent to his widow, Ruth Jacobson, in recognition of Maurice Jacobson's respected place in this community.

City Council Sept. 27, 1971

Adopted by the affirmative vote

of 9 members

Paul E. Healey
City Clerk

207.

RESOLUTIONS

On death of Maurice Jacobson

September 27, 1971

Mr. Danahy

~~CD-SS~~
A