IN CITY COUNCIL

November 21, 1994

MAYOR REEVES

- WHEREAS: The City Council was profoundly disheartened to learn of the death of JOANNE WIGFALL on November 14, 1994 after a long illness; and
- WHEREAS: JOANNE WIGFALL was born in Cambridge on July 19, 1943, daughter of the late Chester and Harriet Griffin Wigfall, grew up and was educated in Cambridge Public Schools, and was a lifelong resident of the City; and
- WHEREAS: JOANNE WIGFALL, upon her graduation from then Cambridge High and Latin, attended the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and Wheelock College, where she majored in early childhood development, and her first employment was at the Cambridge Headstart Program; and
- WHEREAS: Throughout her life, JOANNE WIGFALL maintained a steadfast commitment to the welfare of our children, as a member of the King Community School Council, in Riverside, where she was instrumental in the establishment of the first Community School Day Care Program in the City of Cambridge - a program which she later came to direct; and
- WHEREAS: JOANNE WIGFALL always indicated a strong desire to serve, and a commitment to her community, both young and old, through her good works and selfless giving of her time and talents, and was respected and loved as a nurturing teacher of her family and friends alike; and
- WHEREAS: JOANNE WIGFALL was the sister of the late Chester Wigfall, Jr., the sister in law of Erlene Wigfall, and the aunt of Brad Wigfall, and leaves behind many loving aunts, godchildren, and other relatives and friends; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council does hereby offer its sincere condolences to the family and friends JOANNE WIGFALL in their sorrow; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and is hereby requested to prepare a suitably engrossed resolution on the death of JOANNE WIGFALL.
