Employment

1. January, 1975 to present: (Director - 3/1/76)
Associate Director, SSI Center, 2 Park Square, Boston, Mass. 02116
The SSI Center is a federally and state funded advocacy center for persons receiving Supplemental Security Income, a federal and state welfare program for the elderly and disabled. It is associated with the Massachusetts Law Reform Institute.

At the center I have worked on the preparation of an SSI Advocates Manual for Massachusetts; training programs for lawyers and laypersons throughout the state; representing individuals in hearings and appeals; and federal and state litigation aimed at improving the SSI program. I will become co-Director of the Center in November, 1975

2. August, 1974 to December, 1974:
Staff Attorney, North Suffolk Legal Assistance, 279 Broadway, Chelsea, Mass. 02118

North Suffolk is a five-person OEO-funded office handling typical legal services problems. I worked here primarily on welfare issues. I also supervised a housing paralegal under the Boston College Public Housing paralegal program.

3. November, 1972 to August, 1973:
Public Policy Intern, Mass. Department of Community Affairs, 100 Cambridge Street, Boston, Mass.

I worked here part-time during the school year and full-time during the summer on a variety of housing and economic development matters, including drafting grievance procedures and selection regulations for Public Housing tenants and preparing legislation for a rural housing development corporation.

4. June, 1972 to October, 1972:
Student Assistant, Boston Legal Assistance Project, 264 Meridian St., East Boston, Mass.

5. June, 1961 to August, 1971:
Non-legal Jobs including seven years of advertising writing and T.V. commercial production and two years in welfare related jobs in New York.

Education

1. Boston College Law School, J.D., cum laude, 1974
Graduated in top ten percent of my class; taught with six other women a course in Women and the Law given for credit; member of Environmental Law Review staff.
2. Boston University, M.S., Journalism, 1966
3. Antioch College, A.B., History, 1961

Community Activities

1. Organized the Open School, an Alternative Cambridge Public School, racially and economically balanced that opened September, 1975.
2. Cambridge Ward Three Democratic Committee Chairperson, 1975.
3. Cambridge Convention Steering Committee member running a citywide slate for council and school committee, 1975.
4. Harvard Law School Day Care Center Vice-President, 1973-74.
