

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Councillor Sullivan

In City Council,

July 27, 1970.

WHEREAS:-

This City Council is justifiably proud of the fine caliber of men that serve in the Cambridge Police Department, and

WHEREAS:-

Police Officer John A. Carbone on Saturday morning, July 11, 1970, at six-fifteen a.m., received a call that a woman was perched on the Longfellow Bridge in an extremely dangerous position one hundred feet above the Charles River, and

WHEREAS:-

Officer John A. Carbone quickly responded to the emergency and through his calm manner and powers of persuasion succeeded in positioning himself in such a way that he was able to physically prevent the descent of the woman to the water below, at the risk of serious injury to himself, and therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That his City Council go on record congratulating Officer John A. Carbone for the outstanding manner in which he conducted himself in this time of stress and the other members of the Police Department for their assistance on this occasion, and be it further

RESOLVED:-

That a copy of this resolution be spread on the records of this City Council and a copy thereof be sent to Officer John A. Carbone to express our admiration and pride in his achievement.

City Council August 3, 1970

Adopted by the affirmative vote of 9 members

Paul E. Heslop
City Clerk

194 4.

ORDER

Congratulating Officer John A. Carbone for outstanding manner in which he conducted himself in a time of stress

July 27, 1970

Mr. Sullivan

LSSN
A