Councillor Sullivan

In City Council,
January 24, 1972

WHEREAS:-

It was with deep regret that this City Council learned of the retirement of Eliot B. Spalding as editor of the Cambridge Chronicle-Sun effective December 31, 1971 after thirty years of dedicated service, and

Eliot B. Spalding took an active interest in all civic affairs in the City of Cambridge and distinguished himself by his excellent coverage of the proceedings of the Cambridge City Council and the Cambridge School Committee, and

WHEREAS:-

Eliot B. Spalding endeared himself to all political figures in the City of Cambridge by his fair and concise reporting of all major political events and earned the confidence and respect of all who came in contact with him, and

WHEREAS:-

Eliot B. Spalding was more than a journalist, he was a true friend to all who knew him and never breached a confidence in order to secure personal advantage in his chosen field, therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That the City Council extends its greatest appreciation, praise and admiration to Eliot B. Spalding with the hope that he will have many happy and fruitful years to enjoy a well earned life of retirement, and be it further

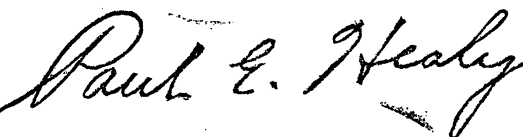

RESOLVED:-

That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the official records of this City Council and a copy, suitably engrossed, presented to him.

In City Council January 24, 1972.
Adopted unanimously by a rising vote.
Attest:- Paul E. Healy, City Clerk.
