VICE MAYOR WOLF
COUNCILLOR GRAHAM

- WHEREAS: The Harvard Union of Clerical and Technical Workers (HUCTW) and Harvard University have signed a three-year contract; and
- WHEREAS: This has culminated a many-year effort for the clerical and technical workers to gain recognition as a union, representing 3,500 support staff; and
- WHEREAS: The contract that has been signed includes many excellent benefits for the workers and includes innovative processes for resolving work-place issues, and provides workers with an opportunity for participation in their every-day work life; and
- WHEREAS: The participatory process for settling is a tribute to the HUCTW negotiators and University negotiations; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council hereby congratulates the Harvard Union of Clerical and Technical Workers and Harvard University for coming to a mutual agreement on a innovative contract; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution on behalf of the City Council be sent by the City Clerk to Ms. Kris Rondeau for the H.U.C.T.W. and to President Derek Bok of Harvard University.
