Dear Mr. Connarton:

This is to thank you, Vice Mayor Reeves, and the Cambridge City Council for the honor bestowed upon me by the Resolution of January 14, 1991 in connection with the Convocation held at Boston University. The Resolution has been forwarded to me by Boston University President, John Silber.

I am deeply gratified by your recognition and esteem, and I shall continue to strive for relevance and usefulness, strengthened and buoyed by your support. The vista of possibilities Boston University opened up to me three decades ago still challenges, still beckons and still inspires. My greatest hope is to share it often with those who need it most.

Very truly yours,

C. Eric Lincoln, Ph D.
Professor of Religion and Culture
