WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge was saddened to hear of the loss of a dear friend and community activist, VIOLET MOORE, when she passed away on Friday, November 18, 1994; and

WHEREAS: VIOLET MOORE was a life-long resident of Cambridge, attending both the Roberts Elementary School and the Cambridge High and Latin; and

WHEREAS: VIOLET MOORE a life-long community activist, belonged to Saint Paul's AME Church since her earliest days, faithfully attending the Saturday morning Prayer Group until illness made it impossible for her to continue; and

WHEREAS: VIOLET MOORE was also a member of the Margaret Hazel Missionary Society, a commitment which brought her to hospitals, nursing homes and on home visitations, always with the spirit to encourage and bring joy to people's lives; and

WHEREAS: VIOLET MOORE also served our community as a Cambridge Auxiliary Police Officer and a school crossing guard, tasks she carried out with alacrity and with the welfare of our citizens in mind; and

WHEREAS: VIOLET MOORE was also an entrepreneur, operating "The Moore's Limousine Service" for many years; and

WHEREAS: VIOLET MOORE is survived by her devoted husband, Gurley "Archie" Moore, their three children, Clairmont D. Moore, the Rev. Michael L. Moore, and Floneva R. Moore, and one grandson; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby declare that from this day, the corner of Prospect Street and Broadway, shall be known as the VIOLET MOORE SQUARE, so that when the people of Cambridge pass by this intersection, they may remember her and the incredible life she led.
