Mayor Alfred E. Vellucci

IN CITY COUNCIL

February 14, 1983

WHEREAS:

On March 30, 1981, a resolution was adopted and presented to Mr. Stephen Kadlec, a special person who had been performing the duties of a Clerk in the Mail Room here at City Hall, for work well done, and

WHEREAS:

Mr. Kadlec, a native Cantabrigian educated in Cambridge Schools, was, in 1982, due to Proposition 2½, laid off from the position in the Mail Room, and

WHEREAS:

Because of his dedication to his duties and his efficiency, he was hired by the Cambridge Hospital as a laborer, among his duties being the delivery of meals to the patients who admire him greatly, and

WHEREAS:

Mr. Kadlec still remembers his friend at City Hall, and devotes his hours after working at the Hospital, and also his days off and vacation time, to assist in the processing of mail in the Print Room, without expecting any compensation whatsoever, and

WHEREAS:

The City is indeed fortunate to have someone of Mr. Kadlec's character, rendering services beyond the call of his regular duties, therefore be it

RESOLVED:

That a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution be presented to Stephen Kadlec, to acknowledge this fine young man who so freely gives of his many free hours and for his dedication to the City of Cambridge.
