COUNCILLOR WALSH
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

WHEREAS: On December 31, 1992, the City Manager submitted correspondence from the Superintendent of Schools regarding the results in the Massachusetts Educational Program; and

WHEREAS: This report shows certain schools doing better than the district and state average tests; and

WHEREAS: Other schools seem to fall way below the average for the district and state; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the Superintendent of Schools be requested through the City Manager to give a detailed explanation as to why certain schools, particularly the Harrington, Kennedy and Fletcher, are falling below acceptable standards and what, in her opinion, allows the Agassiz, Graham/Parks and the King School to be above average and what can be done to assist those schools and/or students to produce better results, especially in the areas of reading, math and science.

In City Council January 11, 1993.
