

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE
INTEROFFICE CORRESPONDENCE

To David Vickery, Community Development Department
From Paul E. Healy, City Clerk P.E.H.
Subject Curb cut notifications sent to neighborhood associations.

Date February 9, 1982

Reference

Dear Mr. Vickery:

In connection with the enclosed order, we are having problems complying with the intent of this order, since we do not have neighborhood association boundaries.

I know that in the past you have tried to obtain some workable boundaries for this office to obviate the need of sending letters to each and every neighborhood association. But it has become mandatory that we have a listing of the boundaries of these groups.

Your kind attention in this matter will be appreciated by this office and by the neighborhood associations who are or are not involved in this.
