

Whereas on August 13-14 the Galleria Mall in conjunction with the City of Cambridge will sponsor a Job Fair for many of the businesses who will be operating in the mall

Whereas this Job Fair will mark the opening of the new Cambridge Employment Program, which will aim to match the jobs created by new businesses entering into the city with the talents of Cambridge residents

Whereas this Job Fair will be an excellent opportunity for Cambridge residents to receive information about many of the jobs which will be available within the Galleria Mall

Therefore be it resolved that the City Council go on record expressing its support for this event, and extend its welcome to the many businesses and stores which will be operating within the Galleria Mall

And be it further resolved that the City Council requests that the city assist in the publicizing of this event, including listing the Job Fair on cable t.v.
