daughters to work day. But sponsors YWCA and New England Women in Real Estate realized that "many young girls do not have any family members or mentors in their lives to celebrate this day with," according to a release.

The day will start at 9 am with continental breakfast in the YWCA library with Mayor Sheila Russell, who will read a resolution from the city declaring this the first annual Adopt a Girl Day for Cambridge.

The mayor will be the first to talk to the girls regarding traditional jobs for women in the work force. A spokesperson from the Cambridge Police Department will also talk about careers in law enforcement. The girls will reconvene for a lunch sponsored by Cambridgeport Savings Bank. For information, call Helen Siciliano at 491-6050.

Big prizes up for bid in 'Big Easy' auction

What am I bid for this lovely autographed New England Patriots football? Do I hear a couple hundred bucks for a week at the Flamingo Beach Club on St. Maarten?

Well then how about $65 or $500 for a table of eight at the fourth annual Big Easy Auction to benefit Youville Lifecare on Friday, May 2, 6:30 pm at the Royal Sonesta Hotel.

The auction, open to the public, is sponsored

Work of five new local TV producers debuts in 'Certified'

This month Cambridge Community Television introduces five new producers. They have completed their certification tapes, which is the first step at CCTV to producing their own real live television show.

CCTV congratulates Josie Guarino for "Improvisational Theatre," Jael Balambi for "Rejoice," Jason Greene for "Questions and Answers," Weixing Wang for "New Director," Sergio Reyes for "Lucy Parsons Center," and David Stern for "Songwriting and Poetry."

Catch "Certified," a compilation of three-minute first-time videos by new CCTV members, on Wednesdays at 7:30 pm on Channel 19.

Cambridge Community Television

Due to the holiday weekend, CCTV will be closed April 19-21.
Regular programming will resume on Tuesday, April 22. The following shows originally scheduled for Monday, April 21, on Channel 54 will be shown on Monday, April by Youville Lifecare's St. Marguerite d'Youville Foundation. Auction-goers can dance to the Latin rhythms of the Renato Thomas Quintet and laugh to the comedy stylings of Cambridge-born comic Jimmy Tingle.

In addition to the auction, winners of the annual raffle to benefit Youville Lifecare will be drawn. First prize is $15,000 and second prize is $5,000. Only 400 tickets at $100 each are available and may be purchased at the Youville Gift Shop, 1575 Cambridge St.

Other items up for bid include a week aboard the Delta Queen for a steamboat cruise vacation, the use of a Red Sox luxury suite at Fenway Park for 12 people (including food and beverage), golf for two with Chris Nilan, tickets to the US Pro tennis finals at Longwood Country Club, crystal and porcelain items, clothing, household items and more.

This year's auction honors the following individuals for their contributions to the community: Charles J. Ogletree Jr., Harvard Law School professor and internationally renowned legal theorist; Pamela A. Ogletree, a member of the founding coalition and interim director of the Benjamin Banneker Charter School; William J.

O'Neill Jr., executive vice president and chief financial officer, Polaroid Corp.; and Walter J.
Sullivan, mayor emeritus and former chairman of the Cambridge School Committee.
