 COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
 COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
 COUNCILLOR REEVES
 COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
 COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

WHEREAS: An extra street cleaning scheduled to make up for a day lost because of the Memorial Day holiday was appreciated for the clean streets it left in the Walden Street/Upland Road area, but proved upsetting to those residents whose cars were towed when signs were posted with apparently only 24 hours notice. Many of these residents were out of town without their cars for business or a long weekend and were surprised to find their cars gone when they returned; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report to the City Council the current practice for posting signs for unscheduled street cleaning or other street work which necessitates the towing of cars, and whether this notification, apparently only 24 hours at this time, can be extended in length to take into account the many Cambridge residents who may travel for several days at a time.
