COUNCILLOR WOLF

IN CITY COUNCIL
December 22, 1986

- WHEREAS : The Planning Board is about to issue permission for a large development on Richdale Avenue on an old industrial site; and
- WHEREAS: At a hearing held by the Planning Board , the developer said that he had had testing done for hazardous material on the site but would not divulge the nature of the testing on its results; and
- WHEREAS: The Planning Board does not consider information on hazardous material in the soil, an issue within their domain; therefore, it is hereby
- ORDERED: That the City Manager be requested to ask the Building Commissioner to check out the issues related to hazards in the soil to assure that there are no potential health hazards before issuing the building permit.
