WHEREAS: The Cambridge Housing Authority Work Force Unemployment Program, a 1990 winner of the Innovations in State and Local Government award of the Ford Foundation and the JFK School of Government at Harvard, is celebrating its tenth anniversary of operation on June 1, 1994; and

WHEREAS: The Work Force Program is designed to provide employment, educational, and economic opportunity to teenagers living in public housing in Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Through participation in the Work Force Program, young people are encouraged to experience success both in school and in hands-on try-out work placements, thereby building their confidence so that they can break the poverty cycle; and

WHEREAS: The Work Force Program has served several hundred youth over the past ten years and is considered highly successful by educators and employers who have hired participants; and

WHEREAS: The Work Force continues to serve, to strive, and not to yield in providing its services to these youth, thereby making 1984-1994 A Decade of Difference in the lives of these youth and their families; now therefore be it further

RESOLVED: That the City of Cambridge goes on record expressing its heartiest congratulations to the Work Force Program on the occasion of its tenth anniversary, to the Cambridge Housing Authority for its continued support of this program, and to its employees including Dan Wuenschel, Steven Swanger, Stephen Davis, and all of the dedicated staff present and past; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council goes on record expressing its hopes and best wishes for each and every one of the young people who have participated in the Work Force Program.

In City Council May 23, 1994.
