

City of Cambridge

March 4, 1989
IN CITY COUNCIL

MAYOR VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: The Massachusetts Vocational Association has designated the week of March 12-18, 1989 as VOCATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK; and
- WHEREAS: The theme for Vocational Education Week is "Vocational Education: Building Tomorrow's Leaders"; and
- WHEREAS: Vocational education supplies our country with a strong, well-trained work force, which enhances productivity in business and industry and protects America's leadership in the international marketplace; and
- WHEREAS: Vocational education serves individual citizens by enabling them to find satisfying careers that suit their own skills and interests, by providing technical skills that let them excel in their chosen careers, and by teaching leadership skills that serve them on the job, at home and in the community; and
- WHEREAS: Vocational education enhances high school students' education by offering practical, meaningful applications of basic skills such as: reading, writing, and mathematics, thus improving the quality of their education, motivating those at risk of dropping out, and giving all students the potential to become leaders in their fields and in their communities; and
- WHEREAS: Vocational education stimulates the growth and vitality of Cambridge businesses and industries and those of the entire nation by preparing workers for the occupations forecast to experience the largest and fastest growth in the next decade; and
- WHEREAS: A strong vocational education program planned and carried out by trained vocational educators is vital to the future economic development of our community and the well-being of its citizens; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, hereby proclaim March 12 - 18, 1989 as "VOCATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK" in Cambridge and urge all citizens to become familiar with the services and benefits offered by the vocational education programs in this community and to support and participate in these programs as necessary to enhance their individual work skills and productivity.
