City Hall
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02140

Dear Sir:

Please be advised that I, Barbara T. Qualey, of 22 Chiswick Road, Brighton, Massachusetts, hereby make claim against the City of Cambridge for personal injuries sustained by me on September 2, 1978, at or about 10:00 A.M. Said injuries were sustained as the result of a defective condition on the roadway on Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Massachusetts, and more specifically described below:

Time: September 2, 1978, at about 10:00 A.M.

Place: On the northbound side of Massachusetts Avenue, in Cambridge, Massachusetts, at the intersection with Mellen Street, in the right lane of Massachusetts Avenue, approximately 15 to 20 feet from the two corners of Mellen Street and west of the intersecting line of the said two streets.

Cause of Injury: The defect consists of (1) an irregularly shaped depression in the roadway varying in depth from 0 to approximately 6 inches, and (2) an irregularly shaped series of connected cracks and a hole in the middle of the aforesaid depression. The defects are shown in the copies of the 4 photographs which are annexed to this notice.

For these injuries so sustained, I hereby make claim for damages.

BARBARA T. QUALEY
