

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, Nov. 2. 1887.

~~Ordered,~~

The Joint Standing Committee on Roads and Bridges, asks leave to Report,

That at a meeting of the Committee held Oct. 27 1887, for the examination and approval of bills, a bill was submitted from John P. Perkins & Son, amounting to $25.00, being the amount paid by them in settlement of a claim for trespass in driving piles on Mt. Auburn Street, for the bulk-head recently constructed on said street.

As your Committee is not informed as to the correctness of this claim, and the authority of the Committee to approve the same, - the bill and accompanying receipt for the money paid by Perkins & Son, are respectfully submitted for instructions.

For the Committee.
