

City of Cambridge

5.
IN CITY COUNCIL

September 8, 1975

Mayor Sullivan

ORDERED:

That the Telephone Building located at 51 Inman Street and purchased by the City of Cambridge to be utilized for municipal offices, be named the Roman Coffin Memorial Building, in honor of said gentleman who, for 35 years, served as a mechanic for the Police Department, and who was killed during a freak accident while on duty, and be it further

ORDERED:

That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to make the necessary arrangements to insure that a suitable plaque is made and dedication ceremony held.

City Council Sept 8, 1975
Adopted by the affirmative vote
of 9 members

Paul E. Healy City Clerk

Order # 5

344

M. Sullivan re: Telephone Building to be named the "Roman Coffin Memorial Building."

In City Council,
September 8, 1975

MS

A