

City of Cambridge

8.

IN CITY COUNCIL

March 25, 1991

COUNCILLOR MYERS

WHEREAS: On Tuesday, April 9, 1991, the Center Square Business Association will hold a Unity Dinner, which will be held at St. Paul AME Church; and

WHEREAS: This event is significant in that it will emphasize the theme of Unity with Diversity: Business and Neighborhood Working Together"; and

WHEREAS: The significance is enhanced by the efforts which have reached out to involve many members of the community, and many distinguished guests including Attorney General Scott Harshbarger and Speaker of the House of Representatives Charles Flaherty; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council go on record commending the Central Square Business Association for organizing this event; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Council recognize and affirm the value of unity in diversity in our city and encourage the working together of the business and neighborhood communities in areas of common interest such as public safety, job training and housing and development, and other community issues.

In City Council March 25, 1991.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Joseph E. Connarton".

Joseph E. Connarton
City Clerk

8.

March 25, 1991

COUNCILLOR MYERS

WHEREAS: On Tuesday, April 9, 1991, the Center Square Business Association will hold a Unity Dinner, which will be held at St. Paul AME Church; and

WHEREAS: This event is significant in that it will emphasize the theme of Unity with Diversity: Business and Neighborhood, Working Together"; and

WHEREAS: The significance is enhanced by the efforts which have reached out to involve many members of the community, and many distinguished guests including Attorney General Scott Harshbarger and Speaker of the House of Representatives Charles Flaherty; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council go on record commending the Central Square Business Association for organizing this event; and be it further

~~Resolved that the City Council recognize and affirm the value of unity in diversity in our city community and encourage the working together of the business and neighborhood communities in areas of common interest such as public safety, job training and housing and development, and other community issues.~~

RESOLVED: That the City Council recognize and affirm the value of unity in diversity in our city community and encourage the working together of the business and neighborhood communities in areas of common interest such as public safety, job training and housing and development, and other community issues.

~~Whereas through the unity together of business and neighborhood, the public and private sectors we can~~

City of Cambridge

8.

IN CITY COUNCIL

March 25, 1991

COUNCILLOR MYERS

- WHEREAS: On Tuesday, April 9, 1991, the Center Square Business Association will hold a Unity Dinner, which will be held at St. Paul AME Church; and
- WHEREAS: This event is significant in that it will emphasize the theme of Unity with Diversity: Business and Neighborhood Working Together"; and
- WHEREAS: The significance is enhanced by the efforts which have reached out to involve many members of the community, and many distinguished guests including Attorney General Scott Harshbarger and Speaker of the House of Representatives Charles Flaherty; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council go on record commending the Central Square Business Association for organizing this event; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Council recognize and affirm the value of unity in diversity in our city and encourage the working together of the business and neighborhood communities in areas of common interest such as public safety, job training and housing and development, and other community issues.

City Council MAR. 25 1991
 Adopted by the affirmative vote
 of 9 members

Joseph E. Conerton City Clerk

Order # 8

S-430

CONSENT

Councillor Myers resolutions on the Unity Dinner.

In City Council,

March 25, 1991

Order adopted