WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has long been a haven for artists, craftspersons, and performers of diverse backgrounds, talents, trades, and media; and

WHEREAS: The esteemed citizens of this fair City have long made known their support for art which is accessible to the community, and which is created within and by the community; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge River Festival, now in its seventeenth year, is one of the largest publicly supported celebrations of art and artisans in the state of Massachusetts; and

WHEREAS: This year's Festival took place on September 10, 1994 from noon until six o'clock, and featured one of the largest assemblages of jury-selected multicultural talent that this City has yet seen, who performed throughout the day for the thousands of Cantabrigians and visitors to our fair City who congregated here; and

WHEREAS: In addition, public displays of art, crafts, dancers, storytellers, magicians, puppeteers, clowns, jugglers, stiltwalkers, facepainters, sand art and silkscreening, not to mention the tantalizing odors, tastes, sights, and textures of the "World of Food," further enticed the spectators; and

WHEREAS: The tremendous success of the Cambridge River Festival was due to the collaboration of the Cambridge Arts Council, local businesses, organizations, and volunteers committed to bringing the very best of our many cultural traditions to center stage in Cambridge; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council recognizes the Seventeenth Annual Cambridge River Festival as a grand celebration of the diversity and the talent of our neighborhoods and our communities; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council congratulates the organizers of the Cambridge River Festival, on their contribution to the quality of life for all our citizens.
