IN CITY COUNCIL

January 13, 1975

Councillor Graham

WHEREAS:

January 15, 1975 marks the forty-sixth anniversary of the birth of Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., and

WHEREAS:

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. during his life time and even in death stood for brotherhood, social harmony and international peace, and was a man who led a group of people from the shadow of slavery to the light of freedom, and

WHEREAS:

It is only fitting that in these times of world crises, extreme poverty in many part of the world, social hatred, and senseless wars, that we should all stop and look for inspiration from men like Martin Luther King, Jr. who exemplify the Good Neighbor of the Scriptures, and

WHEREAS:

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was not only the Lord's servant but the servant of man and dedicated his life for justice through reason and understanding, and

WHEREAS:

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was clearly right in his belief that the only hope for America and the world is through love and brotherhood, that the survival of the human race hinges on love for our fellow-man as our brother, therefore be it

RESOLVED:

That this City Council go on record reaffirming the ideals and principles which were exemplified by the Life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and pause in our daily tasks to remember that his greatness came from his love for his fellowmen.
