May 6, 1999.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

I am pleased to announce the Cambridge Historical Commission's Third Annual Preservation Recognition Program. The program, started in 1997, seeks to recognize outstanding contributions to the preservation of Cambridge's historic resources. There are two types of awards: Preservation Award Certificates honor individuals or organizations for preservation projects completed between January and December 1998; Merit Certificates recognize work completed between 1963, when the Commission was founded, through 1996. Nominations were received from many members of the public. A list of the 1999 honorees is attached.

The awards will be presented at a reception to be held May 18th at Harvard-Epworth United Methodist Church, 1555 Massachusetts Avenue, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. We would like to invite you to participate in the ceremony by helping to present awards to the winners. Although the reception begins at 5:30, the award presentation will commence around 6:00. Last year's reception was a lively, well-attended event. We hope you can join us in celebrating the best efforts of Cambridge's citizens to preserve and protect our history.

I look forward to discussing this invitation with you.

Sincerely,
