Dear Members of the Cambridge City Council :

I want to take this opportunity to thank you very much for your courageous vote on the resolution whereby the City of Cambridge was declared a Sanctuary for Central American and Haitian refugees.

All of us at Centro Presente have great respect for many stands which you have taken in the past and which we feel you have done with this resolution. The Central American refugees that we know are not under any illusion, thinking that all their problems have been solved as a result of this resolution. However, many feel the Council Members and the City have shown a sense of understanding, empathy and courage to stand with them - and this means a great deal to them, and to us.

Thank you for your courage and compassion.

Sincerely,

Sr. Rose Marie
