- 60 1. Congratulations to Gus Rancatore on opening a new Toscanini's ice cream emporium in Harvard Square where bagels will also be served.
- 61 2. That the CM direct the CDD to provide the City Council with information about "Liveable Communities", a city planning concept that groups commercial and residential uses, makes effective use of mass transit, and promotes transportation alternatives to the automobile. Further that the CDD report to the City Council on Federal Transportation Administration grants for liveable communities and their usefulness for Cambridge projects, for example Lechmere Station pedestrian improvements.
- 62 3. That the CM determine who is responsible for weeding the Inman Square bus shelter roof and arrange for said weeds to be permanently removed.
- 63 4. In order to maximize the benefit of street cleaning in next year's schedule that the CM in conjunction with the Commissioner of Public Works determine if street sweeping can be scheduled after trash pickup in all neighborhoods.
- 64 5. That the Director of Traffic and Parking arrange for a "Town Meeting" with the MBTA in order for citizens to express their concerns about service.
- 65 6. In order to inform interested citizens that the CM instruct the Department of Human Services to provide the City Council with a brief written report on the summer food program for children. Further that the Council hopes that the program will meet or exceed last year's meal program.
