13.
IN CITY COUNCIL
April 25, 1977

MAYOR VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: The "CB" radio has earned a reputation as one of the best and most popular communication devices in this decade; and
- WHEREAS: Its use has saved countless lives in times of emergency and disaster and is recently proving to be of tremendous assistance in controlling crime; and
- WHEREAS: The "CBC Vanguard", a community network of CB owners in Cambridge are monitoring and reporting on Channel 19 any activities of suspicious origin in the city or any activities that residents feel should be reported to the Cambridge Police Department; and
- WHEREAS: The Vanguard with its day and night vigilance is providing our police department with invaluable assistance in preventing crime and servicing emergency calls; and
- WHEREAS: The Vanguard, chaired by Mrs. Catherine Hinds, in conjunction with the Cambridge Police Community Relations Section sponsored a decal contest whose winner is Sara Liberman and runner-up is David West; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do hereby commend the "CB Vanguard" for their diligence and public spiritedness and further commend the Police Community Relations Section for their support and encouragement in this worthwhile endeavor.
