- WHEREAS: For the past four years, teams from one hundred and twenty-four countries have prepared, practiced and competed for a chance to come to the United States to participate in one of the greatest sporting exhibitions ever conceived, the World Cup of Soccer; and
- WHEREAS: Due to hard work, boundless skill, and the unwavering support of their fans, twenty-four national teams came to the United States for the 1994 edition of the tournament; and
- WHEREAS: During the World Cup, billions of sports fans from each and every corner of the globe were treated to great soccer and a wonderful spectacle; and
- WHEREAS: BRAZIL, whose history of excellence at soccer is unquestioned, completed its historic quest for a record fourth World Cup title, with a 0-0 victory (3-2 on penalty kicks) over that great competitor Italy; and
- WHEREAS: This victory secured BRAZIL's first championship in World Cup competition since 1970, when Pele starred on the national team; and
- WHEREAS: The multitudes of BRAZILIAN soccer fans, in the United States in general and Cambridge in particular, surely had something wonderful to celebrate; and
- WHEREAS: They did indeed celebrate, through Inman Square, down Cambridge Street, at the Pampas Brazilian Barbecue in Central Square, and all throughout the city, with waving flags and beeping horns, painted cars and joyous hearts; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby congratulate the members of national soccer team of BRAZIL on its well-earned championship in the 1994 World Cup of Soccer; and be it further

RESOLVED: That we offer our best wishes to the many fans of BRAZILIAN SOCCER on this the occasion of their most stunning victory.
