

Cambridge, Septemb. 4th 1872.

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned respectfully ~~prays~~ represents and gives your honorable Board to understand that in the award made to him of damages for property taken in laying out of Portland Street, there are errors in the items, as well as an undervaluation of the property taken: therefore he prays that a time for a hearing on the subject may be granted, and that previous notice may be given personally, so that he may be prepared to prove his allegations.
