IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN,

April 21st, 1896.

Whereas, by a resolve and order approved March 25, 1896, certain parcels of private land therein described, were taken on Eliot street and the same were laid out as a public street or way of the City of Cambridge, it is therefore Ordered: That due notice be given to Eliza J. Ferris, Heirs of William G. Carlson, Devisees of Edward G. Russell, Heirs of Rebecca Monroe, Henry C. Rand and others, and all other persons interested as owners, proprietors, tenants, occupants or otherwise, in said land, that they cut off, pull down, remove, and carry away all buildings, erections and obstructions of every sort standing on and projecting over the lines of said Eliot street, as established by the resolve and order aforesaid, or move and set back the same to the said lines, and vacate and surrender the land and premises taken as aforesaid, on or before the first day of July now next ensuing.

And in default thereof, the City of Cambridge, by its Superintendent of Streets, will forthwith enter upon said land, and cause all buildings, erections and obstructions standing on and projecting over the lines of said Eliot street, as established by the resolve and order aforesaid, to be cut off, pulled down, removed and carried away, or sold in such manner as said Superintendent shall deem expedient, or to be moved and set back to said line, and the land to be vacated and surrendered to said City.
