

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

December 26, 1931

To the Honorable, the City Council:

I have the sad duty to notify you of the death of Mr. John J. Quinlan, 19 Maple Avenue, who died at his home in this city on Thursday, December 24th. Mr. Quinlan had served as a member of the Cambridge City Hospital Trustees during the past eleven years, and was at the time of his death a member of that board.

I respectfully recommend that suitable action be taken by your honorable board as a tribute of respect to his memory, in which tribute I shall be glad to join.

Yours respectfully,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Richard W. Russell". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

WHEREAS:

Frederick H. Burke

A communication has been received from His Honor the Mayor on the death of John J. Quinlan, a member of the Board of Hospital Trustees, it is fitting and proper that notice be taken of the sad event.

Mr. Quinlan served for a period of eleven years as a member of the City Hospital Trustees and gave willingly of his time and energy in an effort to alleviate the suffering of citizens who were in need of hospital treatment. With his colleagues on this Board he played an important part in the growth and up-building of the Hospital and his ability as a business man and devotion to the cause were in a large measure responsible for the success of the institution. He was an active, amiable, yet aggressive business man, highly respected, true to every trust, loyal to his friends and possessed of a courage that never faltered even in the face of difficulties and discouragements.

It is therefore

RESOLVED:

That the City Council hereby records its loss in the death of John J. Quinlan. In his untimely passing away the city has lost a good citizen, the Hospital Trustees a faithful and conscientious member and the family a loving husband and father.

And it is further

RESOLVED:

That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this City Council.
