Dear Ms. Drury and Ms. Lopez:

Thank you for your letter dated May 15, 1997 conveying your support for House Bill 3905 requiring divestiture of public funds from companies which derive more than fifteen percent of their income from the sale of tobacco products. You will be happy to know that I am a co-sponsor for this bill and will work diligently to get it passed. Please share this information with the members of the City Council.

Once again, I appreciate your interest in this bill. If you have any further questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Paul
