COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

No. 23 North Market Street,

Boston, Feb 8th 1882

To the Hon Mayor and board of Aldermen of the City of Cambridge, Your petitioner formerly and for fifteen years a resident of Cambridge respectfully asks to be released from a self imposed obligation amounting to Twenty Dollars under the following circumstances which will be remembered by members of the board who were members last year; Your petitioner asked that a stand pipe for filling water carts might be removed from the front of his residence on North Avenue which for ten years ^{has} been a very great annoyance and nuisance and Your petitioner had several times asked that it be moved, without success and finally appeared in person and stated his grievance and in the course of the hearing Alderman Gouch stated that some lady on the Avenue had borne some part of the expense of a similar removal, Your petitioner in his excitement and anxiety to be relieved of the great nuisance he had endured so long, unguardedly offered to pay twenty dollars towards the expense of the removal. Having suffered so long such an annoyance and nuisance Your petitioner respectfully asks to be honorably released from the obligation
