Congratulations and best wishes to Steve Vassotakis, General Manager of the Cambridge Hyatt Hotel as he and his family move to Miami Florida where he will become General Manager of the Hyatt / Miami.

Steve has been a real asset to the Cambridge Community in many ways. He spearheaded efforts to involve our elementary students in work awareness settings.
He was the leader in adopting the Marsh School as a community partner with the Hyatt Hotel. Steve has led as a ^{General} Manager who understood and modeled the fact that a diverse workforce can be the best asset a business can have.

Steve returned fresh flowers to the Hyatt lobby, but the ~~that~~ Hyatt's cuisine on the map. He experimented with special hospitality spaces such as the riverfront tent and the multi-leveled sky view junction room.

Steve will be missed by his colleagues in the hotel industry and by our citizens.
He brought wisdom and good humor to our city. We are indeed better because he gave a sincere and excellent effort here. We will miss him, his wife and three adorable sons who all must continue to call Cambridge their "home".

Best wishes for every success to Steve and family ^{from} ~~for~~ the Cambridge City Council on behalf of the People of Cambridge.
