

1879
Cambridge May 10. 1870
To the Honorable Mayor and Board of Aldermen

Gentlemen The undersigned, would most respectfully represent; that the sum of $50, which was awarded to her as compensation for damage done to her estate on Magazine street, by the recent sidewalk improvement on said street, is wholly inadequate to meet even one fourth of the expense which will necessarily be incurred in putting said estate in ~~the~~ <sup>as</sup> good condition as previous to the betterment. And <sup>she</sup> therefore ask; that your Honorable body will further consider her claim, and allow her such additional Compensation as you may deem equitable any just.

Very Respectfully

Your Obedt Servant

Mrs Mary Barry
