Come join us at the International Party.
Celebrate the cultural diversity of the Community Learning Center and Central Square. Enjoy an international buffet with dishes prepared by students, staff, and board members. Be there for the drawing of raffle prizes. Dance to a selection of music from the Americas.

The Friends of the Community Learning Center is devoted to raising funds to support the educational services of the Community Learning Center. Proceeds from this event go to the Learning Center's Adult Basic Education and English as a Second Language programs for adults. Due to cuts in federal and state funding, it is especially important for us to raise private funds. Show your support for adult education and have a great time too!
