A message from the City Manager and the Police Chief

We want to take this opportunity to welcome you to the ranks of the Cambridge Police Department.

You have successfully completed the first thirteen weeks of your training and are now ready to take your place beside more seasoned officers for crucial on-the-job training. You will perform as regular police officers and you will have to shoulder the awesome responsibility that such duty entails.

Today's police officers must be prepared to confront a host of problems and situations ranging from the social and psychological to the legal. And they must be ready to deal with them equitably, professionally and in accordance with the dictates of the law.

As you serve the citizens of our city, remember that your authority ultimately comes from them. Keep in mind that you may be the only representative of the city they ever see. And remember that you are acting as the guardian of a proud tradition.

Congratulations and good luck!
