

Cambridge, Sept. 28 1870.

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned respectfully prays that he may be heard upon the matter of the award made to him for land taken to widen Essex Street. in as much as he believes that there was a misapprehension as to the relative situation of his lots of land, and as he believes that he can convince your Honorable Bodies that the price per foot awarded him was inadequate, as compared with the sum awarded to the owners of the adjoining estates.

Edw. Hyde
