

Cambridge

Nov 8 1899

Mr McDuffee Dear Sir
As I cannot attend the meeting tomorrow afternoon I wish you would explain to the Chairman of your Committee that I approve of the change of the name of Dyke St to that River View Avenue. It ought to have been changed long ago as there is no Dyke there. Mr Gulman is a large property owner and is a reputable man for our District and anything that he says goes we will back him up on it

And also Mr Suppe
I wish you see to it that the numbers on the Street are changed on one side of the Street there will never be any houses and we are continually bothered with people enquiring for this and that number the numbers do not run right please ^{or call} plat this matter before the proper Committee And believe yours
Respectful
Cornelius B. Braslin
