IN CITY COUNCIL

February 25, 1991

March 4, 1991

MAYOR WOLF

WHEREAS: The mission of the American Red Cross is to help people avoid, prepare for, and cope with emergencies; to improve the quality of human life; and to enhance self-reliance and concern for others through services which are governed by volunteers and consistent with the principles of the International Red Cross; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross provides emergency care, food, clothing, and shelter to families temporarily displaced by fire, flood, and other disasters; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross assists current and veteran military personnel and their families to relay thousands of messages of birth, death, and illness to military posts worldwide; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross maintains a not-for-profit blood system which depends solely on volunteer donors, consistent with the principles of the American National Red Cross; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross continues to disseminate information concerning the prevention of the spread of the AIDS virus and fights hazards to health and safety by training in first aid, cardiopulmonary resuscitation, occupational safety, and water safety; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross is constantly changing and updating its programs to meet the unique needs of the local community, largely through extensive voluntary support; now therefore be it:

RESOLVED: That this City Council proclaims March 1991 as American Red Cross Month in the City of Cambridge, and urges all fellow Cantabrigians to join in recognizing this organization and its contribution to the quality of life; and further be it

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to the American Red Cross.
