Whereas: The citizens of Cambridge have a longstanding and deeply felt sense of patriotism born of our leading role in the struggle for American independence. And

Whereas: The first American Flag, known as the Cambridge Flag, flew over the first headquarters of General George Washington and the Continental Army on the Cambridge Commons. And

Whereas: The celebration of Independence Day was, for many years, a central feature on the Annual Calendars of all Cambridge residents, young and old alike. And

Whereas: The city's observance included celebrations in the local parks, with three legged and sack races, bike decorating contests, and other games for our young people; a citywide parade; and fireworks on the Cambridge Commons. And

Whereas: Such celebrations brought forth a spirit of Civic Pride, Unity, Patriotism, and community well being. Now therefore be it

Ordered: That the City Manager assemble the appropriate Veterans Department, Recreation Department, Arts Council, Community Schools, Police and Fire, and other departmental Staff to design an appropriate city celebration of July 4th, 1991 that shall include a citywide parade, fireworks at Danehy Park after sunset, and neighborhood park parties. And

Further: Recognizing the late date, and enormous task, that a senior staff be assigned to oversee the efforts. And Further: That a sum not to exceed $50,000.00 be appropriated to accomplish this end.
