

Cambridge, Dec. 2. 1862.

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned respectfully ~~may~~ represents, that when Turner Street was widened, near the head of Austin Street, there were taken from his estate 223.84 sq. feet of land, as he has recently ascertained by survey - and as shown by the Plan herewith submitted. As the quantity thus taken is so considerable, he respectfully prays that the City make him such compensation therefor as may seem just and reasonable.
