William Burke of Cambridge

William P. Burke of Cambridge, a Cambridge Housing Authority supervisor, died Friday at the Neville Manor Nursing Home in Cambridge after a long illness. He was 86.

Mr. Burke was a lifelong resident of Cambridge.

He is survived by a sister, Helen T. McMahon of Cambridge; and several nieces and nephews.

A funeral Mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. today at St. Mary's Church, Norfolk Street, Cambridge.

Burial will be in Cambridge Cemetery.

Arrangements are by Burns Funeral Home, Cambridge.

thing couldn't be worse, and the next couple of years will be difficult," Monaco said of defense cuts. "Individuals and small firms will be hurt."

A recent study of the New England defense industry by the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston reached a similar conclusion.

"The shrinking national defense budget will continue to create a drag on the New England economy in coming years," warned the study's author, economist Yolanda Henderson.
