Gentlemen:

On behalf of the Board of Directors I wish to acknowledge with gratitude and appreciation and to thank you for granting your permission to conduct our Annual Ten Mile Road Race which was held on Sunday, March 27, 1977.

We are happy and extremely gratified to inform you that this year's race proved to be a great success and the number of runners exceeded that of any other year. The event has grown in stature and importance with each year and we are very proud to be able to perpetuate such an ancient and noble tradition.

Sincerely,

Charles G. Faggas
