

City of Cambridge

18.

IN CITY COUNCIL

November 15, 1993

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

WHEREAS: Charlotte B. Moore has recently resigned as Executive Director of Cambridge Discovery, Cambridge's non-profit tourism office; and

WHEREAS: Charlotte's many friends will honor her tonight, November 15, 1993, by hosting a dinner tour of the City entitled, WHERE'S Charlotte?; and

WHEREAS: Charlotte's ideas for Cambridge tourism became the guiding principles of Cambridge Discovery, which organization she helped to create and she then served for 10 years as its first Executive Director; and

WHEREAS: Cambridge Discovery's achievements, under Charlotte's leadership are many:

- The organization of a Board of Directors staff and volunteers to bring the City of Cambridge a quality information service;
- Twenty volunteers working year round for residents as well as tourists;
- The only regularly scheduled walking tour of the City, which also provides rewarding summer jobs for teenagers;
- The Cambridge ClassMates Program at CRLS, which gave notable Cambridge residents the opportunity to serve as role models for high school students;
- The provision of information, editing, quality review and essays for guidebooks and publications that feature Cambridge;
- Sharing the lead role in developing the Cambridge African American Heritage Trail;
- The initiation of a Vocational Education Program in Tourism at the Rindge School of Technical Arts; and

WHEREAS: Charlotte Moore received the Julia Ward Howe Award (Travelers Information Exchange) in 1991 for consistent outstanding service to travellers and was awarded the Governor's Citation in 1992 for her leadership in developing the Cambridge African American Heritage Trail and for her work on Glory Brigade (Civil War) Reactivation Ceremonies; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council hereby recognizes and thanks Charlotte B. Moore for her many contributions to Cambridge tourism and to the development of the Cambridge heritage for visitors and residents; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Council, taking note of her departure as Executive Director of Cambridge Discovery, wish Charlotte B. Moore good fortune and accomplishment in all her future endeavors.

In City Council November 15, 1993.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

WA: Charlotte B. Moore & recently resign 9
ED of C Dis, Camb's nonprofit tourism
y;

WA * C's ^{many friends} → & honor is 11/15/93
(hosting dinner tour & entitled,
~~but~~ Where's Charlotte;

C's ideas & Cam tourism became guiding principles of Cam Dis, I organized
She helped both create & then served
> 10 yrs as its 1st Ex Dr;

WA Camb Discovery's Achievements, under C leadership → ^{many}!

- The organization w. Bd of Drs staff and of Volunteers & C P & C
'Quality Info Service';
- 20 Vols → a round & residents
as well as tourists
- & regularly 20 Walking tour
& P & C by rewarding summer yrs & teenagers;
- (Camb ClassMates Program at CRLS)

Which a notable Camb residents (opportunity / serve as role models) H.S. Students

• (provision of info @ editing @ quality reviews @) essays for Guidebooks) publications @ feature
Camb.

• Sharing / lead role in developing the Camb African American Heritage Trail

• The ~~sub~~ initiation of a Vocational
~~or~~ Education Program in Tourism at the Rensselaer School of Technical Arts

WA

C M received (Julia Ward Howe
Award (Travelers Information Exchange) for consistent outstanding service to travellers and was awarded the

* Governor's Citation - 1992) & Lushes
- As (C A A H Trail) & work c
Glory (Brigade (Civil War) Reactivation
Ceremonies ; &) (

R: P P P L e recognizes & thanks
CBM & e contributions / Camb tourism & P P / ~~Etter~~ Camb
heritage & visitors — & residents; & C, V.

R: P (P L e note & departure as
EX Dr of C Dig, wish CBM good fortune
& accomplishment — a future endeavor

City of Cambridge

NC

W/9-0

IN CITY COUNCIL

#118

November 15, 1993

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

WHEREAS: Charlotte B. Moore has recently resigned as Executive Director of Cambridge Discovery, Cambridge's non-profit tourism office; and

WHEREAS: Charlotte's many friends will honor her tonight, November 15, 1993, by hosting a dinner tour of the City entitled, WHERE'S Charlotte?; and

WHEREAS: Charlotte's ideas for Cambridge tourism became the guiding principles of Cambridge Discovery, which organization she helped to create and she then served for 10 years as its first Executive Director; and

WHEREAS: Cambridge Discovery's achievements, under Charlotte's leadership are many:

- The organization of a Board of Directors staff and volunteers to bring the City of Cambridge a quality information service;
- Twenty volunteers working year round for residents as well as tourists;
- The only regularly scheduled walking tour of the City, which also provides rewarding summer jobs for teenagers;
- The Cambridge ClassMates Program at CRLS, which gave notable Cambridge residents the opportunity to serve as role models for high school students;
- The provision of information, editing, quality review and essays for guidebooks and publications that feature Cambridge;
- Sharing the lead role in developing the Cambridge African American Heritage Trail;
- The initiation of a Vocational Education Program in Tourism at the Rindge School of Technical Arts; and

WHEREAS: Charlotte Moore received the Julia Ward Howe Award (Travelers Information Exchange) in 1991 for consistent outstanding service to travellers and was awarded the Governor's Citation in 1992 for her leadership in developing the Cambridge African American Heritage Trail and for her work on Glory Brigade (Civil War) Reactivation Ceremonies; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council hereby recognizes and thanks Charlotte B. Moore for her many contributions to Cambridge tourism and to the development of the Cambridge heritage for visitors and residents; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Council, taking note of her departure as Executive Director of Cambridge Discovery, wish Charlotte B. Moore good fortune and accomplishment in all her future endeavors.

Signed this fifteen day of November, 1993

Francis H. Duehay
City Councillor

City of Cambridge

18.

IN CITY COUNCIL

November 15, 1993

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

WHEREAS: Charlotte B. Moore has recently resigned as Executive Director of Cambridge Discovery, Cambridge's non-profit tourism office; and

WHEREAS: Charlotte's many friends will honor her tonight, November 15, 1993, by hosting a dinner tour of the City entitled, WHERE'S Charlotte?; and

WHEREAS: Charlotte's ideas for Cambridge tourism became the guiding principles of Cambridge Discovery, which organization she helped to create and she then served for 10 years as its first Executive Director; and

WHEREAS: Cambridge Discovery's achievements, under Charlotte's leadership are many:

- The organization of a Board of Directors staff and volunteers to bring the City of Cambridge a quality information service;
- Twenty volunteers working year round for residents as well as tourists;
- The only regularly scheduled walking tour of the City, which also provides rewarding summer jobs for teenagers;
- The Cambridge ClassMates Program at CRLS, which gave notable Cambridge residents the opportunity to serve as role models for high school students;
- The provision of information, editing, quality review and essays for guidebooks and publications that feature Cambridge;
- Sharing the lead role in developing the Cambridge African American Heritage Trail;
- The initiation of a Vocational Education Program in Tourism at the Rindge School of Technical Arts; and

WHEREAS: Charlotte Moore received the Julia Ward Howe Award (Travelers Information Exchange) in 1991 for consistent outstanding service to travellers and was awarded the Governor's Citation in 1992 for her leadership in developing the Cambridge African American Heritage Trail and for her work on Glory Brigade (Civil War) Reactivation Ceremonies; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council hereby recognizes and thanks Charlotte B. Moore for her many contributions to Cambridge tourism and to the development of the Cambridge heritage for visitors and residents; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Council, taking note of her departure as Executive Director of Cambridge Discovery, wish Charlotte B. Moore good fortune and accomplishment in all her future endeavors.

In City Council November 15, 1993.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

Non-Consent Order #18

R-536

Councillor Duehay re: Resignation of Charlotte Moore as Executive Director of Cambridge Discovery.

order adopted

In City Council,
November 15, 1993