ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Best Things in Life are Free

When we count our many blessings, it isn't hard to see
That life's most valued treasures are free.
For it isn't what we own or buy that signifies our wealth,
It's the special gifts that have no price:
Our family, friends, and health.

Obituary

Howard Richard Jones, Sr.
("Popeye")

1925

1991

Howard Richard Jones, Sr., the son of the late Albert and Margaret (Perlam) Jones, was born on November 11, 1925 in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

He was educated in Cambridge and served in the Armed Forces of the United States during World War II. He worked for many years as a truck driver for Local 25, and then for the City of Cambridge. He retired from the City of Cambridge Public Works Department. "Popeye" was a man about living life to its fullest. He left a legacy of hopes and dreams. He has been known to be an inspiration to many.

He departed this life on July 25, 1991 after a lengthy illness. He leaves to mourn his loss: his wife, Sylvia O. (Greene) Jones; three sons, Ronald Lewis, Earle Steven, and Howard Richard Jones, Jr.; five daughters, Georgina M. Dottin, Diana J. Brown, Paula A., Val C., and Darlene J. Jones; fifteen grandsons and nine granddaughters; three great-granddaughters; and a host of other family and friends.
