IN CITY COUNCIL

December 17, 1984

MAYOR RUSSELL

- WHEREAS: This City Council wishes to recognize and commend citizens who display exceptional examples of vitality and human spirit; and
- WHEREAS: Mrs. Florence MacMullen, a longtime resident of Cambridge who now lives in Brockton, will celebrate her 94th birthday on December 28, 1984; and
- WHEREAS: Florence was chosen in 1966 as the first woman to be inducted into the World Hall of Fame of Candlepin Bowlers; and
- WHEREAS: Florence will always call Cambridge her bowling home, since she spent many years competing with the bowlers of St. Mary's Parish at Joseph P. Sacco's Bowl Haven on Bishop Allen Drive; and
- WHEREAS: Florence, despite a pacemaker operation in 1980, still bowls once a week, plays beano twice a week and maintains her good health and energetic outlook on life by remaining active; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council do hereby congratulate Mrs. Florence MacMullen on the occasion of her 94th birthday, extend to her our sincerest wishes for many more healthy and happy birthdays in the future, and commend her for her inspirational approach to a vigorous and active life.
