

Cambridge, Oct. 20 1873

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge

The undersigned respectfully ~~prays~~ represents that at the time of the hearing in relation to the laying out of Northland Street, he was present, that there was no plan before the Board of Gen-eralmen, nor anything to show where it was proposed to lay over said street, that as his nearly laid out lot cuts off his land to the depth of nine feet and more at the widest part, and takes a part of his house, wherefore he prays that reasonable compensation may be made to him for the clearance thus done to his estate.
